The Allentown Band, under the direction of Ron Demkee, will present the show “Americans We.” To recognize the Liberty Bell Museum’s exhibit highlighting the history of electricity and celebrating PPL’s 100th anniversary, the concert will feature March Electric by Giuseppe Grotto. The Allentown band will also perform works by composers such as, Walter Piston, Morton Gould, Leonard Bernstein, Henry Mancini, John Philip Sousa, and more.

The concert benefits the Liberty Bell Museum’s educational programs which provide hands-on experiences for every third and seventh-grader in the Allentown School District, teaching them about the brave, patriotic actions of everyday citizens who, in the formative years of our Commonwealth, risked their lives in the cause of liberty. It fulfills science, history, reading, writing and vocabulary objectives for the Pennsylvania Department of Education Common Core Standards.

Throughout the year the Liberty Bell Museum also provides art exhibits and educational programs for youth and adults, and of course, our classic “Pip: The Mouse Before Christmas” continues an Allentown holiday tradition, now in its 59th year.

The concert is held in the “acoustically perfect” sanctuary of Zion’s “Liberty Bell” Church, 622 W. Hamilton St. in center city Allentown. Free parking is available for concert-goers in the Gross McGinley lot. (Enter via Seventh Street at the blue Liberty Bell Church Parking sign.)

The Liberty Bell Museum will be open before and after the concert. Admission to the museum is included with your ticket.
